Volunteers-In-Parks Program
Cabrillo National Monument

As a volunteer in the Visitor Center you will have the opportunity to meet and speak to people from around the world! You will welcome and orient visitors to the monument, answer questions about the park, San Diego County, and the National Park Service, assist in Ranger-led programs and general Visitor Center operations. We are open 363 days a year and we are the third most visited National Monument in the park service. This is the view from the Visitor Center!!
